REMARKS

Please prepare for DDCI's approval. This time have Bobbie prepare the package — she should know the procedures —

Thanks

Attached is the captioned MOU. As we discussed the other day, this agreement (which has already been signed by the DD/DIA) would more appropriately be sent forward to the DDCI with a memo originating from OS, going through OGC.

For your information, also attached is some language I initially prepared for the DDCI memo.

As I have been in touch with the DIA General Counsel's office on this, if you want I can forward them the signed agreement.

DRAFT

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

THROUGH: Office of General Counsel

FROM:

Director of Security

SUBJECT: MOU Between CIA and DIA on Exchange of Personnel Security Information.

1. Action Requested: This memorandum contains a recommendation that the attached Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between DIA and CIA be signed.

2. Background: The purpose of the MOU is to formalize procedures for passage of personnel security information between the agencies. It sets forth the agencies respective responsibilities, including providing for limitations on the dissemination of adverse personnel information and clarifies other issues associated with dissemination of personnel security information. The MOU does not effect the DDCI's discretion regarding the dissemination of polygraphically-derived information and expressly provides that ~~nothing~~ in this agreement alters the authority and responsibility of the DDCI to approve the dissemination of polygraph-derived information consistent with CIA policy" (MOU at D4d)

3. Recommended: The MOU, which was initiated by DIA and agreed to by OS, has been signed by the Deputy Director, DIA. It is recommended that you sign the agreement.
